DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-13 and 32-57, drawn to a method of detecting an interaction between a first and second CFTR polypeptide, comprising contacting two CFTR fusion polypeptides and measuring the expression of a reporter molecule, and host cells expressing said fusion polypeptides.

Group II, claim(s) 14-31, drawn to a method of identifying a regulator of CFTR polypeptide interaction comprising contacting two interacting CFTR fusion polypeptides with a test compound to ascertain if the interaction is enhanced.

Group III, claim(s) 58-59, drawn to a method of treating a patient for cystic fibrosis with a compound.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The special technical feature of Group I is the method step whereby two interacting CFTR fusion polypeptides cause the expression of a detectable reporter gene, which represents a first method of using the host cells expressing said fusion and reporter genes.

The special technical feature of Group II is the method step whereby fusion proteins are contacted with a test compound to ascertain if said compound is a regulator of CFTR polypeptide interaction, and represents a second method of using host cells expressing said fusion and reporter genes. This special technical feature is different from the special technical feature of Group I because it (a) represents a second method of using a product and (b) it involves a method step that is not present in the special technical feature of Group I.

The special technical feature of Group III is contacting a patient with a test compound as a means of treatment. This special technical feature is different from that of Group I because it involves treating a patient, wherein the special technical feature of Group I is an assay that does not involve contacting patients.

Because of the reasons set forth above, the inventions have different special technical features and are therefore patentably distinct.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
